IGNORANCE
AND THE infinite

EVERY CIVILIZATION in time has attempted to explain that which cannot be explained. Modern humans know more about how things work than they ever have. In two thousand years they will know even more about the how. The ultimate question, however, is why. A simple look at the bible reveals the enormity of how little the people of biblical times knew about how things worked. In their world view the how and the why were the same question. They, like us, felt and experienced things that even modern science cannot explain. When they saw a rainbow they said “beautiful,” and thanked God for creating it. When we see a rainbow we say “beautiful” and thank the scientists for explaining “how” it happens. We both say “beautiful,” we both feel the beauty. Why is there beauty? Ask the physicist, he does not know. Ask the theologian and he tells you that beauty is God. God is not man, God is not thing, God is not physical. Beauty is not physical. That feeling which takes place in the presence of pure beauty is not physical either. That feeling is the presence of something beyond the physical.

The hundreds of authors, scribes, and editors that had a hand in our present scripture felt the same need to explain things that we do. They also had the same need to relate it to their current setting. The only problem is that the Absolute and Infinite is above time, above culture, above your simplistic ideas of right and wrong. For instance, yesterday The Christian told a woman she was a sinner for having a child out of wedlock. Two thousand years ago The Jew said the same thing. Before that The Pagan killed the man who looked at his unwed daughter. Times change. Cultures change. All of these men felt they were doing Good; the will of God. In their time they very well may have been doing good. A careless glance at an unwed daughter in 200 BCE could lead to the humiliation of a tribe. A single woman in 5 CE could not support a child on her own. Even The Christian of today can view the life of a single mother as difficult and therefore do everything in his power to prevent that situation.

Ignorance is present in all men, but so is the Infinite. This is the combination which has produced your bible. This is the combination which has produced war. This is the combination which has produced hatred. Somewhere in this book is the Truth. To reach it you must look through the literal façade and find the common ground that all creation shares with the bible’s ancient authors, scribes, and editors. That common ground is Absolute, above the physical and psychological change which has and always will occur with time.

The I N F I N I T E
and A B S O L U T E

Bible

Listen to those who are Truly in Touch.
They tell you of True Understanding.
All can be fully Understood.

All can be known through one.
All can be I N F I N I T E .
All can be A B S O L U T E .

*In the beginning was the Word,
And the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.
He was in the beginning with God;
All things were created through him,
and without him was not anything made
that was made.
In him was life, and the life was the light of men.
The light shines in the darkness,
and the darkness has not overcome it.*

DO NOT HOLD A W O R D D O W N
by acknowledging only its sensuality.
A Word can be fully Understood.
